User Guide

- Origin/Destination = city pair (three letter codes) - mandatory
- Carrier = two letter code of the carrier – mandatory, if no carrier entered – IATA
Fares applicable to all carriers are returned
- Class = RBD / booking code – optional
- Date = date of travel on specific segment – optional; if not used on the first segment, the system considers today's date, if the sector was travelled in the past (1 year in the past), the year must be entered (23JAN13)
- Stopover = optional; blank = stopover, X = no stopover
- Break = Fare Break Point - optional
blank = not specified
MB = Fare Break Point required at the end of this sector
NB = Fare Break Point prohibited at the end of this sector
- Fare Basis = Fare basis code – optional
blank = not specified
SPCLS = only special fare required
NORMS = only normal fares required
- Point of Sale/TKT = optional; necessary to be specified when it is different from the location of your terminal
- PTC - Discount code = optional; system default = adult passenger
- Validating Carrier = optional; if not specified, validating carrier will be selected by the system automatically
- Ticketing Date = optional; if not specified, it means today; ticketing date can be 1 year in the past (the year must be entered, e.g. 13JAN13)
- Account Code = optional; used in case of private fares loaded with account code
- Private Fares Only = optional; only private fares to be returned
- Published Fares Only = optional; only published fares to be returned

Following keyboard shortcuts can be used beside the mouse.

It is useful to enter SPCLS or NORMS in Fare basis field in case when no booking codes or specific Fare basis codes are used. It can help you to obtain more Fares.

No	Origin	Destination	Carrier	Class	Date	Stopover	Break	Fare Basis
1	PRG	HEL	AY		20FEB	X		SPCLS
2	HEL	HKG	AY		20FEB	X		SPCLS
3	HKG	AKL	NZ		21FEB			SPCLS
4	WLG	AKL	NZ		03MAR	X		SPCLS
5	AKL	SHA	NZ		03MAR	X		SPCLS
6	SHA	HEL	AY		04MAR	X		SPCLS
7	HEL	PRG	AY		04MAR			SPCLS

Below the table is the 'Fare options' section with several empty fields and checkboxes for 'Private Fares Only' and 'Published Fares Only'. On the right side of the window, there are buttons for 'Get FQP', 'Send FQP', 'Copy All', 'Clear', and 'Exit'. A red arrow points from the 'Send FQP' button area towards the 'SPCLS' entries in the table.

When SPCLS is entered in the Fare basis fields, 10 different Fares are returned by the system, which is maximum.
